

Mercury, I and you.

Help! And 'the human being to tell reasoning is that he who governs, it says that today is better than yesterday.

What to tell between a little more in the need to call the police.

I came to laugh.

A thousand of those things that I do not have time.

(A) ... to think better.

Confusion of a glass, the other, the question today. Too many things that you do not have too many robberies. And the wall that you attacked him. The wall to put your hand in front of the body. Too many demands. Who does not speak. Your blood in my drinking glass.

Watch the star that is not for your little revelation ignorance is exceeded. Your point of yours, of that thing, or your code, which is not that you or the fund and who is there?

What counts if you're off, you or your social or political.

Democracy. Your real. What you can not. Where is the fake. Who?

Walls of division.

There is no solution to that problem, do not you exit the door, where there's the door. You wanted to know what I know, and let stand those triangles that serve not only to go back where unfounded, you have been before and there you are. And if you want to know what others want to know, that thing that opens, where you were lost, and it was or the solution or your misfortune. Do not talk what you do not know. Tell him no. It was not something then.

There is a massacre down in the street. It is not a dream who was and is the rest of your life.

Quit and find what you feel. Lathes and he is what you say you are and you do not know.

As you can see we are always here.

Those openings, those losers because there are places where people are no longer things and souls, but objects to describe. Except the guillotine. Who has lost and that there is already collecting.

Who is more powerful enjoys, it is not true and that you are in Italy, then someone will tell you that and that is this question here because it is pressing. End and the light of day is that it is full, but is still day.

And then and then and then. Song of Mina, one begins as dramatically. You know here we walk with the books in your pocket.

Ownership as in a general sense of the word.

Those words that we lack the call in another word that we lack.

Enjoy your meal to you.

The happiness of the things that do not exist and where they remain silent, still believe that words are all the things they say. I think that there is a party to go wrong by the way, but in short, where are you going to finish tonight. I knew that problems tonight, so old and well known which is a blasphemy to say that a problem is known.

Major issues and people that we think.

Where? Here there is, you know it was all wrong and tore threw away forever and a little that thing five minutes ago, the "NO" as they say.

You have come to buy for evil?

A good appetite, you may not leave the words, your fears what created you can give, you have stolen and where it ends because I do not know.

The creation is easy. G

Being oneself in all and everything is difficult, but I have thrown away, go to see the millions of people go by. We each then a mine, where it ends, but you had to say to those who might like I'm writing.

There is a variety so great evil left.

Let your time in reducing the hours to be compelled to express what you're not.

Already and where you start when you know you do not remember and or, where down, and what is it, and that all we do not live as one dead, and figures in black and white subject. Wells and Evils. Choose souvenir or caste. There are other friends, but ...

Where is the law when you live better believe and or still many words, lets keep that one away when the wind was short.

... The day after those who do not live in the wrong?

You recognize people, but you say maybe you're not clear in the mathematical thought of the situation, and the offenses are those of the rest six that there was all then tell you, after all there is only lies, then nothing is returned in a previous position.

Again good appetite. Who steals who dies or is otherwise.

The framework of a day's Sun that crushed the summer.

You are still here ... and think if you have eyes still closed. I between the sun a little "go out" but you know already hello.

Another day: your limits, and or, where did you find where your eyes, you can not pay because it is too high. You have the solutions, and things too difficult. All resolved. In our modern world, have already found all the solutions to all the doubts, I tell you all the problems. Rely need. That is a blasphemy to see flying.

Watch that it is a blasphemy that flies.

Do not know the personal property of your choice, plus your voice and your ideas do not know what you read, even for today. There are some things that do not fall out. The subject today is your head, much interest is there for this thing in our time in the present. And it is always that direction as an arrow in the middle of the eyes towards progress.

Are the dynamics that vary, the rules or "modalities" that are like life primarily if there is or not, even though I have qualified technicians, and graduate, which I suggest that this fact is irrelevant, perhaps not there is a problem, in my opinion was a problem of communication, on the other hand are all dead, who gave you this honor.

You know the people you passed on goods. You know.

Problems state that is rather the "Country", all things you do alone without Good.

As you can see everything is already finished, it was only a small complaint. Rest. Hello. Too soon.

Serious problems to the jugular, cut with the pliers, there is no one to date, all parties is not true that these things are written.

Among other things there is no one has essentially done, except me. Where's the curse and if you have not well understood, does not stop, it's not then the world outside the home in a few hours, then is so different. You who live a better coffee. I just spent five minutes where the calm, all-state problems, do not worry, salts which then die, see the last part of this sentence is blasphemy, you know well what I'm talking about trying to say it to your nearest "you have available that is what you have next to see who thinks, will now continue their supreme power. G

The claims of a day like any other theme.

You were wrong to talk so the errors are many and the solution is far away. 87040.

The item goes off it is not true when you are asleep then you wake up, talk. Is too coarse a word that no one says, or where you the door, and then where you talk to, that which destroys the animal is not good. The removal of that then you submerge, for the day which is untrue. Who will steal no longer exists. Error is not us, to bring, or to create the society that word "good" you "you must" be careful or what lives today, even today. Especially if he does not speak or where bypasses the speech does not continue. He will not stop me but who, as he is already one thing then another then it always will be looking at what does not stop, only and or fog. He says the word now go find your issue today so that tomorrow, I forgot. Subject and predicate. He is not me, fascism is not to say this for granted the distortions. Where to begin your job?

The heaviness of a new day. The happiness of that day continues. If you look next to you there are thousands of years of sleep. We are continually slandered.

In nature is the reality, the solution is very simple are other things, or people who they are indicated and it is us or them. G

The propensity to empty out that what you were before, where you go after, right now, but what you say is not wrong and we find that your life goes on dear, that it is not just to throw as progressive idea.

Your limits that do not know your person does not know why not talk? and for what.

What you can not be another is a mistake as a blasphemy to say as what you say.

It 's the day begins.

People who have already embarked on a discourse that does not run, that bus has already passed you see, that there was no one in that space where you can stay on your feet than / to you with what you've never could do, read the next bus is coming.

What you could say. Watch is blasphemy but there is a bar at the bottom, where selling croissants and coffee. The taste that will never be of the bitter hello bambino / a.

It very important today, who are you really to respect others, the action of your and others, for others and for you. Where to go! What to do!

We do not we have lost, is lost here is said.

We know, that does not believe, what should be surprised today. Al thief. Murderess or ex.

Things known, see above, you mean that you know then you lose in what you have said and what you tell an X saying that everything is already in place where it was not "verified" anything. The wonder of the thief or my Uncle, Sinudyne or anything. The courage of those who speak of the word. Hello Canada, or Europe.

The world is dissolved. The end of the world has already taken place. What do you want to include? Who wants to talk. Pantarei.

We return to ourselves not traveling the world without stopping.

Sinudyne or Italy, one sees that in the end, one knows Italy.

Life has changed with the advent of evil, let them be the ones still fighting, with only the palate who received during the week, life has taken on multiple meanings not from evil. New forms, current ways of being, to become life and types of thoughts and acts people open more than one action more clear and fast and exceptions allowed new personality things that have clarified the problems and distortions of the clauses of the people. Horizons to where the man says, the past, and the beats.

It depends on your position for you and for him it makes no difference so it's automatically continues to the end as always such a pace three times a day. We do not know.

It is sweetened a little with all those scripts that your wanted theirs.

That strange Sunday afternoon. Did dreams.

How many things that have not done so.

Continue cry ... and if you love the repetition in the same words.

Evil.

Not a god.

See new horizons, the black silence, what you want to tell the world, it is also you who live on another planet, here is confusion of who I am and who are you what you had to do, and that who are liable at times that I want to do.

Come a publication of those ideas, or configurations of life of the past? and then look at today for not thinking about tomorrow. Goodness knows that means.

From my height in the years I have understood what the others can hear and has nothing to do with anything you need to move towards what you want to repeat everything you say or pin in accordance with the neighbor.

It was time. Open your eyes. Here we do not see anything. Here again it was not that. Now I understood. Let's see.

This is a routine, where we exist in order to be today. Where goes our problems. And where they know. Do not die G.

Here the problems are over when you have solved, so let me know how you view then let me know.

There are the curse words and to erase all things. You can talk goes away. And just continuing. Of the there is only emptiness. That is here for the (/ / /)

The situation is different from how it appeared. These are the people who are coming who do not know anything, and it would be somewhat close 'the State, to discuss the faults and crimes, that says that no one fly because the gun lead. More light on what you start? The phone and calm.

It certainly is a beautiful drawing, which poor people laughing and rich as well, the question is what happened! Two floors of silence. Greetings, as always without rancor, G.
