Happy August.

Is a period of turmoil last month, you know where this train wants to get blurred. I told you everything.

Silence, we do not talk anyone. There are web. Remember the plot of this film.

What happened in this last week, you remember, we love to talk to. Another film, misery and nobility.

This is the basic life, a movie, not as if you noticed, is in another environment is not normal for the costumes in hospital declared, as if you could get everything for good.

We must always declare the whole truth and lies, at times to have a clear vision.

We are not people who want and who can.

What is real for you today:

The past with others, or spent on their own, see that your friend from view and distorted mentality, if not speak, do not clear the thought.

I expected to turn a cigarette. It is not difficult to know what he wants, and if you're thinking, who has the opportunity to speak with God, you must say something more.

Things have not changed from vacuum begins a day if you want the real past, you engage the present and the reality is that you build, or rather you who have made today, and everything is now, where there is the inconvenient tomorrow there is no evil.

Artists are the day after tomorrow, I think people sought to hide the well to do to see more misery on top of that today as you see then you must submit always relate to your calendar year in which alive. You're uncertain that what exists today is not nothing to be underestimated, and your problems are not beyond, and tomorrow will be solved your problems.

The art is not useless. Speak or write is not wrong, and if someone wants to top the issue that now moves you from the side, "there". The world is no doubt true as the other planets, how it should be property.

The time is advancing, advancing, with your whole person if individuals do not fall where you are.

Still does not want to understand where it's over, maybe these gentlemen that you see on the left eye went a little for the light. She did not want him to understand not know him, you know, the good does not interested in those things, you have to be prudent, careful ladies, it's more deep the wound is another question more seriously, you have to take.

The price of boredom and emptiness, then enter in a fake as in a curse on the earth, you ruins, day dear it is not true that we win the good, the good wins. Speak you pass that the good has already won.

Not have done without you there when they want to, also will call you. You see that today there are still problems, see your face. For these things is always the same, for life they say.

I do not accept the form of evil, because basically what you said is wrong, even when you do not know the big problem is that you have brought home and in the car when you go out today. The solution is that today, after a few hours, is the problem that brings you, that is the same the other day, one or the year but it is today that we'll lead.

The word that gets dirty or rather the dirt and you who travel to another place.

Friends.

The base and the bottom.

The general problem is not bring it to your home as a matter of your own.

Not exist.

That form of art on. I think that that name, the item is not imaginary and unnecessary, but the good that is prohibited by a swastika from above what I "saw yesterday" because what you perceive changes from day to day.

We are a sip and see more, and die not, and people you have said before, like you, you are with those problems that you had before and after, you are continually beaten and do not match well, the surprise is to see that are all your fellow citizens and relatives. Good day.

Habit, and more, there are others and others need to go is called free up desk, the place where you've gone / feminine a miss you not me today. Trained.

Do not believe in what you believe, and yet you say that is around you and within you, what is there, and there is not.

Feeling is at the top of the scissors, do not resist. The world of raising, and who's it is, you know that there is another room next to the one she adored, and thought it was the only one, is your path to salvation. In summary, what is the summary. Stop.

Was too coarse modern thought, have improved, because he was the one that now you think it is a fruit, as the law. The law was, because we do not operate, the law has been so because it was decided.

Then you've stopped / feminine because there are more words, because no one speaks.

Below that is already experienced as if it went into a recording of life, but if you do not know already there are two types of auto play, and a very common and a state of arrest of police, and is the past that you've already lived your years.

The rest of you know "why not call."

And see how many people are not involved in what you said, it was all yesterday and today.

In this state you denounce "these things to him" by the policemen.

Where are all. G

18.07. The price of a life including the color, comments on the past week.

What where happen, it's already a good result and that is so good today is not associated with regular life that repeats itself, do not say. We are in a box of what they should be. Do not you feel a bit tortured / feminine. It was what they were to report.

Good right now as he passes the time is a life higher than you expect.

Accustomed to the boredom. Things already lived, and experiences of others. What you wanted to do.

The strange thing that speaks to you, you who do not say that there is, watch the sun rising or is high in the sky. None of those were you, you are your own reflection of what you see in your mirror, for the climb of your life that brings you forward, to get so close until the next appointment is not for the end of the day, like last week tells you what it acts as a master and winner who has lost because she started to play.

Things to adults say they do not even want to play for children.

We are to live the life of the diseases of others.

Will seem strange, but really have not solved that problem among many people who talk among themselves.

The solution is to look at this my hand.

Not knowing the well is a vital damage, such as the fact of what you just heard and as we are in summer, and think deeply to the words to see what you have just heard so much because if you do not say, I say. Those things you say to overcome an issue, since they have never complained, you will say in a way that agrees to take them on.

Be careful / feminine a what is happening today and those shovelfuls mechanics arriving during the day, it is not clear. They have already finished to be those people, and yet it moves.

Do not know the people, not even yours.

The division of the flesh of a cut to divide and live sets from the individual is not, then you do a drawing.

I am me, stop, the rest is you and / feminine or you.

Lacked this state of unreality or fantasy things are necessary.

Do not see why it happened nor what happens, in a clear and there is no common expression, a peace that will take you where the stuff that made you betray yourself more hatred and resentment. It seems heroin, and this is what you wear. You must know that your face looks is what you have done, because you and you beat him and drug him.

Learn from the Communist Party.

Do not leave it is not your life, watch it wait, where you stop, the wrong hours of his life planning to be another. We point out that life was in your lives downstairs in our day, because I have not called, then the law is for everyone because they have not even called you so. Empty your imagination, you know us we do not suffer from bad to most, that the evil is almost equal for all. Good lunch ambitious sides.

Question then you say or think that is what is the whole speech?

Who did you say?

And they are everything.

Me, you who you are.

Look at this beautiful river in the house? Those who say that but then goes right. The tragedy for ice cream. You know outdated practices.

Break the egg to find out what is inside.

Venting, a valve imaginary. Lack.

Let me. You lose to me. Forgive me but there is a "Rio" or the lack of people in the duplication and depersonalization. Fall in the rule also things that have been banned a week that has passed for if rims and also in the past two points.

"Jupiter, Integro, Dinne, Ginger."

The difference. The threshold is then that you realize that concrete than that which exists for all, and even where you pay the rest. Buildings such as biscuits I remember from what he writes another. Look at the buildings is typical of biscuits in the existence of evil.

On the other hand is the life where you have not paid.

Imitations of me.

The vacuum is a life of way to live without, do not you ever tell anyone these things for ages because we firmly believe that there are over we will not, for what wilt not, and does not believe that the best is the normality for all.

You happen to become unable by shame and from the offense from things that do not concern you personally today. It is continue today because where and with whom. We happen if your continuous so that, for so they say something that you may seem obscene to make mistakes in person as we speak in front and another three or four books of common errors that could be spread through a delete state change as I 'oil the machinery. It could be ugly the rest. You always sleep in order home. Buried in the house, maybe it's just your criminal record or your bank account.

You should go back for a moment back twenty years you are a little off you do not recognize. It was all a mistake of "communication".

Where you see a mistake that does not exist. The imagination is perhaps a part of freedom.

See how well the Italian buried on awakening this morning, and, namely Watched inhabitant of this planet, how many wounds, not to laugh on the word of lacerations and on the fact that you can not solve. The wounds are resolved. How many years have passed away and run towards the outside.

Good evening on that day of celebration, this evening of celebration even though it is far away. Do not you say to me, but for who is my cousin, who graduated today. Did I leave a glass of orange, the end of a speech that leaves the strange taste that is best left to those who want to tell us to silence. In person, in person, person to person.

How to read this speech, and what, who has lost and who won in the end if all go. Your business and business people. People live on top of these things that are repeated that are bad for the heart and mind. A failed dream look round to see how all the people are not from that part, and even those who live outside of all of the speech. Will change as the time of a season, your time and your air. Besides outside. Sometimes go out.

Greetings dear planet Earth. G.

At sea:

It as close to sunset on the evening of what you do not know, because you still think that people only change their personality, or that there are more. Where did you cut to what matters better, tells you the time, and that had better eyes when we were younger, but see how many problems today as people, things thrown at him as to us who they are threaded within us, some ask other imaginary personal vendettas. That game of power that a shame, for what remains of us, to find a state of deprivation and imprisonment, and death fascist misery, degradation and on the shoulders of people come in "Calabria", you will see is the same in Piedmont. You'll learn all this silence is misery, weakness of mind, is generally a social degeneration as yourself.

Years passed quietly to suffer evil to endure, and you've held inside.

There are practices and medicine to defeat but you will live better and yes you have to accept it because good things are challenged and discussed. Closings mentally strong and sustained other minor, but in general you can not get out much.

Push out to the hard stuff that no one even says that there is.

See how happy that object which is just past the outside without conscience, and enjoy that and that but in practice " indeed " there are all these things with those odious forms of the parasite that attacked him wanted to take you way to bring you to hell. Truly it is the water, you can also turn on the other hand, you see the future and people. Pause take a glass of water, the more that an error is a blasphemy.

Peace and those who have said that for peace to these modern times should be careful with these ideas not to accept the good. No one talks even in America does not matter but we'll explain why you is you and who speaks to you without that. That cabbage problem must renounce it, but as yet have not.

See what happened before you see or hear me.

Continue this river?

End.
