

What changes.

As the sea slip away

Without any certainty of where you are

To then find myself out of the hole and the tunnel.

There was nothing left to do.

For what it means.

All disappeared. It was not you who was there in her up to where you said the thought of reaching that deaths are better now not know what he says or I suggest the point is that it is wrong. The point is that it is already over the place should not be a point to finish with all the wrong places. Your problems will speak to me, where I loosen them problems and see what was the reality that already looks.

I and the problems are those that have them always around him and not me here and it is always the case.

Like blaspheme.

O give more.

On a catastrophe of two thousand.

And lost him.

Certainly did not know if poverty of poor people live.

What will then have to say?

How is it that continues. Even more rotten. More rotten not there are Alice.

Products low and vile things your country low, and other cost-effective and high.

What do you want to continue doing that before.

I do not know where it stopped, but it certainly gives them will be lost from that part, where he already thought yet, talk to me and the law and where to go there.

There is always so much of that staff are not used too many people off.

And nobody ever talks about the history and modern complaint in writing to the judiciary and on the walls in the town. The news and all.

Education above what you'll see that after a school and still do not, the other world well-covered with a tarpaulin truck and beat you with sticks. The graphics are prohibited in this place that not you but a concentration camp.

Always complain to the point where it ends.

And you know and you do not know what, because we are all advancing, but as you see there, there are other well and are tired is not even time to re write that here as well as abuse, said to live.

A blank line (for her) but who? Your product is never perfect. A product as a rule is good only widespread and common as you shut down. Communication is necessary and what was my thinking that is not expressed, it was told the same with your participation.

Watch the life that you spent for the I-TV here, they, them, so the deal and eighty million people all by him for you or for me. What does it mean to live or bad ING rings the bell all their seats that again. Note the bell rings go well no, just for today or hour or minute. You do not speak.

How and why or when it is already too much, too many people who speak and for those for you, for me, or, for others, for what and for what you did here is no need to talk about other things. Eyes watching you. Things that are thrown or the culture that does not take root. Feel the noise of an airplane or you've already seen too many changes.

Watch the life that I spent here and there for you.

Peace is Easter you like to smoke or talk. I have already drunk three glasses of wine last night from my uncle Paschal.

There is much work to do to me someone has already understood.

Who lives with an evil does not exist, disputes about the good. The thought is that you see.

The well is fairly. In its shape and its colors. Its shape today that you can sound like a dream.

It is indeed another.

You live, but where the ingestion and recruiting are free and are therefore little arts and many difficult days thinking about the past and walk in the streets.

Mali zeros are starting to breathe for your time. You see the world slipping away like a wall that collapses down to you.

It 'been banned church. I have serious problems such as beatings with force to the head and body which prevent your peace.

Time is the key to including what they can say. E 'where you live, for I know.

Nothing in this presentation has been about these words. And problems if they want, find the street but not here in my house and as you see, is the good people who deny that there were no stops for the holidays. It is not true that we are never born because of us born here, but must rather be a success or what is new today. Today.

The well is a particular object exists without evil and should not be where it is concentrated and the object offended. If you weeping live better, you do not object to short up to a certain point it's all a matter the state as a matter of being reversed or the blame.

It was the month of May when he was successful and now, death to you for me that the people decide the future and the past and I do not know what to say to people who do not condemn those who kill the past and the present here and elsewhere who speaks to you tells you only the false. The usual ills without sliding the phone all day and all they wanted was to lift the evil that title that is different for everyone. Turn on a radio that is already the rest of history.

It 'not true there are many words that you need but why and everything destroyed your future with your question.

Good day air, art.

All the success has already happened. Are the absence and the void and torture housewives no state or law. Your or my right and what you say and Where.

Do not you want to understand what was needed or the speaker, at the bottom of your soul, how many pains to remain not only with what you have for a friend, you see already passed the truth because no one speaks, all that is male, all together, that we, that we can avoid with all my sorrow, the friendship of your friend how much effort to write and it is already past. And 'here the law can not be kept at home if that obstacle to overcome, which makes us beautiful after having understood, is exceeded. I hope in your reading, you want to make, something you, so that understanding. I suggest a "roots", is what it is along the river that will not, and will not stop.

Maybe not me I do not want to kill him is already dead post written not cry.

Want to know your descendants school I came to find. I do not like to do everything I need but a tear even close, especially alone at times because it hurts and sometimes it must exonerate all good practice for a day invented by Sun.

How do you feel ... Just a few moments for the total resolution and do not know with whom you are talking about because it is forbidden to say or kiss or overcome. Taboo, boredom or deficiency.

And if not here where you'll lead. To mistake where the error is not there. What you suggest what is not commanded but to love me and asks why it is so "all" so today reveals concealed our argument so that we will also offends him. All have preferred to continue. G.

The charge of day to. (...)

You know who is always talking of the time, of which live in your state and the democracy that exists with the laws installed. The loss and lack of knowledge. What you pass to the brain and down the street or television more than strange affair also the total resolution. Total is odd, I have total. Remain intact is the practice of today because yesterday was. How much confusion even today just wake up.

Do not talk anymore. It was heard a silence for ten years. "Silent" brand of torpedo weapon used to shut down your house. People come from evil. People are your neighbors so that there are things around you who once were warriors. Now there is the problem of hunger, but this is a past event. And she was always looking for a private place, where even breathe freely with your girlfriend or your family there are those who want to bring the whole nation.

Do not quit here if not by the door.

The exit and entry who build these houses. The solution is God who interests you the solution and why we continue. Why is he your ex did not win, even if they are still calling. Bought the disc you do first, or should stand at a certain time.

Transformed the world has changed for me is a crime to say such a thing. It 'just say the world has changed hours you follow them. The world is new and is always available. That has changed.

Jamaica and reggae.

Then that disappears if you want in the world. This offense that no one washes. Wash with detergent. Today's concern happy.

"An e-mail is a gutter"

E ', where it ends, the sea begins the earth. See the roof Social Italian - French, because I wanted you to understand. This is not your town or your country are two and they can be overcome only with the laws of your state. The geometry and architecture, I say. I am who I am? Then you talk about ending a bad thing but not me the other division of the houses in the absurd evil. Where does the state and worse and I started and then your friend stinks. As the idea of where you live. He told you about. I police already but it's all true dear / a. What do you think altitude. Good morning.

Would you like to continue, and which side you see that eye because it does not speak. What happened to you the afternoon. Where are the states of your arrest? Watch for the law "was to arrest" calls of complaints and complaints of articles of constitution and law of these you require. There is no one above the second floor. And 'the void, and your real threat or not because Continental is not here or is here but also in your entire state + French + German + Europe in general and of the planet. A problem of human being is a global problem, but "no global" planet. And what you want who's calling. Solve the problem that we do not reach anyone for the next two hours but where here in my house or your house or do here in the country. Your city is empty and then returns that is always small problem but whoever told you and who you have to understand. Too empty. Drugs. The bad words can not say?

Courtesy of the ->.

A few moments from "Sin" city.

Fascists.

No story of the Holocaust.

Feel the silence sulfur.

How much peace and how to die. Today. And you should not. And other problems.

Who steals and those sacks, there must also be a mistake.

Will continue tomorrow. The slogan, two points.

Then a stroke, the fresh air, and a new atmosphere, new colors, already, please.

The dead who die. Without condition, without guilt.

The blow, the fault of arrest and who wants to go and who fails.

You understand about the limit, the threshold, the law of God and the rule + 12 or 13 things.

A tomorrow that is always another day.

Life continues for roads that are not dirty where you do not expect you to go where your fresh thinking is free. Where you do not say who or even you can not say the name, can not. Where today is going to end up. The war continues in peace. The words that you cut to command not to speak. The law that goes with it. What has been distorted, that is stronger. Where is the good. This property does not end. Even if you do not know where to go. Why is the fog in your head. The head clouded. The head is the topic today. And 'ever today that it was not.

Continue to without the cuts. Cuts without blood.

E 'already happened to you afraid to 12:00 today. He is normal not what you expected. And ...

The fresh air, we are all tired, the exact perverse imagination, the revolutionary imagination, shocking and not abstract but qualified for "fault".

It uses the male friend how to avoid the wrong idea in the speech of your actions.

Poverty will never be enough.

He has already identified the problem of the calls you to his responsibilities. Tell him what is lacking.

Out of nothing there's nothing. Out from where you are installed there is only emptiness.
